CASE RALLY: SENIORS

The Seniors' skit was a collage of themes, including "Battle of the Network Stars" with Somerset teachers as the stars, and "Dance Fever with Martha Gladue as Denny Terio. The highpoint of the show was Barbara Messier, Ricki Herstedt Nora Crowley, and Chrissie Eklund as "DEVO".

JUNIORS VICTORY!

The Juniors' ingenuity shined again with "Who Shaved EW?" They flying antics of Elroy Lazaro and Steve Bartsch combined with wit and good timing to provide a second straight Case Rally win for the Class of '82!

SPORTS

SOCCER 80

The Soccer Team had an unusual season in 1980. It was a year of memorable victories and heart-wrenching defeats. It was a year in which the injury list grew to almost the size of the roster. The team worked hard to claim a tie with Attleboro as Division One-west champions, only to be denied a playoff berth due to an unknown rule change.

No matter how it ended, no one will forget the season of '80. Steve White's three goal performance against Attleboro, the come from behind tie against Taunton, the defensive battles with New Bedford and the rain in Barnstable all will be remembered. The team would like to thank the Mantis, the Moth, and the Bee for laughs; tri- captains Steve White, Shortie Bamford, and Bill Terry for leadership; and Coach Whit Horton for everything.

FIELD HOCKEY

The 1980 girls's field hockey team, under the strong leadership of senior captain Lisa Thibault, completed a successful season of 8-3-3. Although the team did not make it to the state finals, they still finished very strongly in their division.

The team will graduate eight seniors who will be sorely missed. These girls are Lisa Thibault, Cathy Phillips, Patty Mullins, Anne Hussey, Sue Thibault, Sherri Hanatow, Mary Lib Barrar, and Martha Ward. The entire varsity squad should be congratulated for their spirit of competitiveness and desire to win.

The junior varsity team also completed a successful season. All of the girls on this team will certainly contribute to fut ure varsity teams.

Cross Country

The 1980 cross country team successfully copeted in the highly competitive S.M.C. Division 1. The young "Big Blue Machine" was ably led by junior captains Dan Gendreau, Kathy Sapelly, anf Nancy Picard. On the boy's team significant contributions were turned in by Phil Lussier, Peter Lapriore, Alan Baskin, Mike Lockett, and Chris Pereira. A strong field of runners competed for the girls. Among them were Sue Rowe, a first year runner and the only senior on the team, Nancy Picard, Elise Ironfield, Jenny Churn, Beth Lizotte, Annmari Periera, and Carla Nicolay. The season was highlighted by Phil Lussier's trip to the state finals, and by the naming of Nancy Picard to the all-conference team.

VOLLEYBALL

The Somerset girls' volleyball team compiled a record of 3-7, in an extremely competitive Division II. Led by senior captain Kim Gagne, the team improved consistently throughout the season. Losing only two seniors, Kim Gagne and Judy Lowe, the team is looking forward to a better season next year. Filling out the rest of the varsity roster are: Mary Fingliss, Nadine Camara, Lynn Filion, Carey Newton, Cathy Royas and Terri Mello. All of theses girls should be commended for their outstanding performances. Special recognition goes to Kim Gagne and Mary Fingliss for being named to the Division II all star team.

FOOTBALL

The Somerset football team would like to thank Mr. Daley, members of the school board, Mr. McDermott, Mr. Mahoney, Mr. Estes and Attorney Kyriakakis for their support in helping the team fulfill its major dream- going to the Superbowl! Under the great leadership of tri-captains Jeff Colbert, Scott Geary and Jim Mulrooney, the team still managed to be number one after all of the days of practice in the hot sun to the cold days of the early winter. Mr. Ed Winslow coached his team to one of the best seasons ever; a regular season of 8 wins, 2 losses; a 6-0 league season and the third year in a row being Div. II CHAMPS!

SUPERBOWL '80
SILVER LAKE 21 SOMERSET 3

Somerset became the first Southeastern Mass. Conference team to be invited to a post-season Superbowl berth in Division III. The Blue Raiders had to fight a court challenge with Canton High School over the Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association's rule that picked the third ranked team over the second place squad. Canton had already met number one seeded Silver Lake and it is contrary to association rules for two teams which have already met to play again in the Superbowl.

Somerset won in the court but lost on Boston University's Nickerson Field, 21-3.

Steve Mello kicked a second quarter field goal and the Raiders had a three point lead at the half. Somerset's defense, the "Blue Crunch Bunch", dominated the powerful Lakers.

Silver Lake, the undefeated Old Colony League Champions, turned the game around in the second half and took advantage of Raider errors to score three unanswered touchdowns.

The Superbowl was Somerset's first chance at a football championship since the 1958 captured the title.

GYMNASTICS

For the past three years, Somerset High School has fielded the most outstanding girls' gymnastics team in New England. The Raiderettes, under the guidance of Coach Bill Barnicoat have captured three consecutive state and south sectional championships and have a winning streak that dates back seven years.

The 1980-81 season was expected to be a continuation of past excellence. The Boston Globe made the Somerset girls the pre-season favorites to win their fourth straight title. Halfway through their season, the girls seemed well on their way to remaining on top. For the first time the team has co-captains: Jane Cote and Patty Mullins. Neither has experienced a loss or less than state championship performance since their freshman season. As a junior. Jane was an all-state selection. Other outstanding performers were: Lynne Cote, Kim DePaola, Michelle Arruda, Lisa DePaola, Tish Donahue, Jennifer Jaryna, Beth Anne Calis and Bridget Rebello. The team's base is still the underclassmen, so Somerset's dominance of the sport should continue for years to come.

ICE HOCKEY

The Blue Raiders were expected to have a rebuilding year in ice hockey, but it did not start out that way. After defeating Bridgewater-Raynham and North Attleboro in pre-season scimmages, Coach Bob Souza's Raiders only lost once in their next nine games.

Somerset plays in the Southeastern Massachusetts Conference Division 1 and is always copmpetitive with state powers Falmouth and Barnstable. The past two seasons, the Cape schools have won the Eastern Mass. and state Division II championships. The Raiders have defeated and tied these teams during that time.

Captain Scott Geary returned for his final season in the cage. Scott was a three time selection to the Spectator's all-scholastic team, and he was twice picked by the*Fall River Herald News* all-star team. Defensemen Dave Cuttle and Jeff Colbert continued to skate regular shifts and kept enemy attackers away from in front of the crease.

Up front, Coach Souza had Kenny Sullivan, Paul Marcellus and Chuck Borge. Sullivan was second in the league in scoring during his junior year and Paul Marcellus was the early pacesetter in 1981. Borge was an outstanding defensive forward who also played with the blueline corps.

These six seniors provided the leadership for a talented group of underclassmen who hope to keep Somerset as the top ice hockey school in Bristol County.

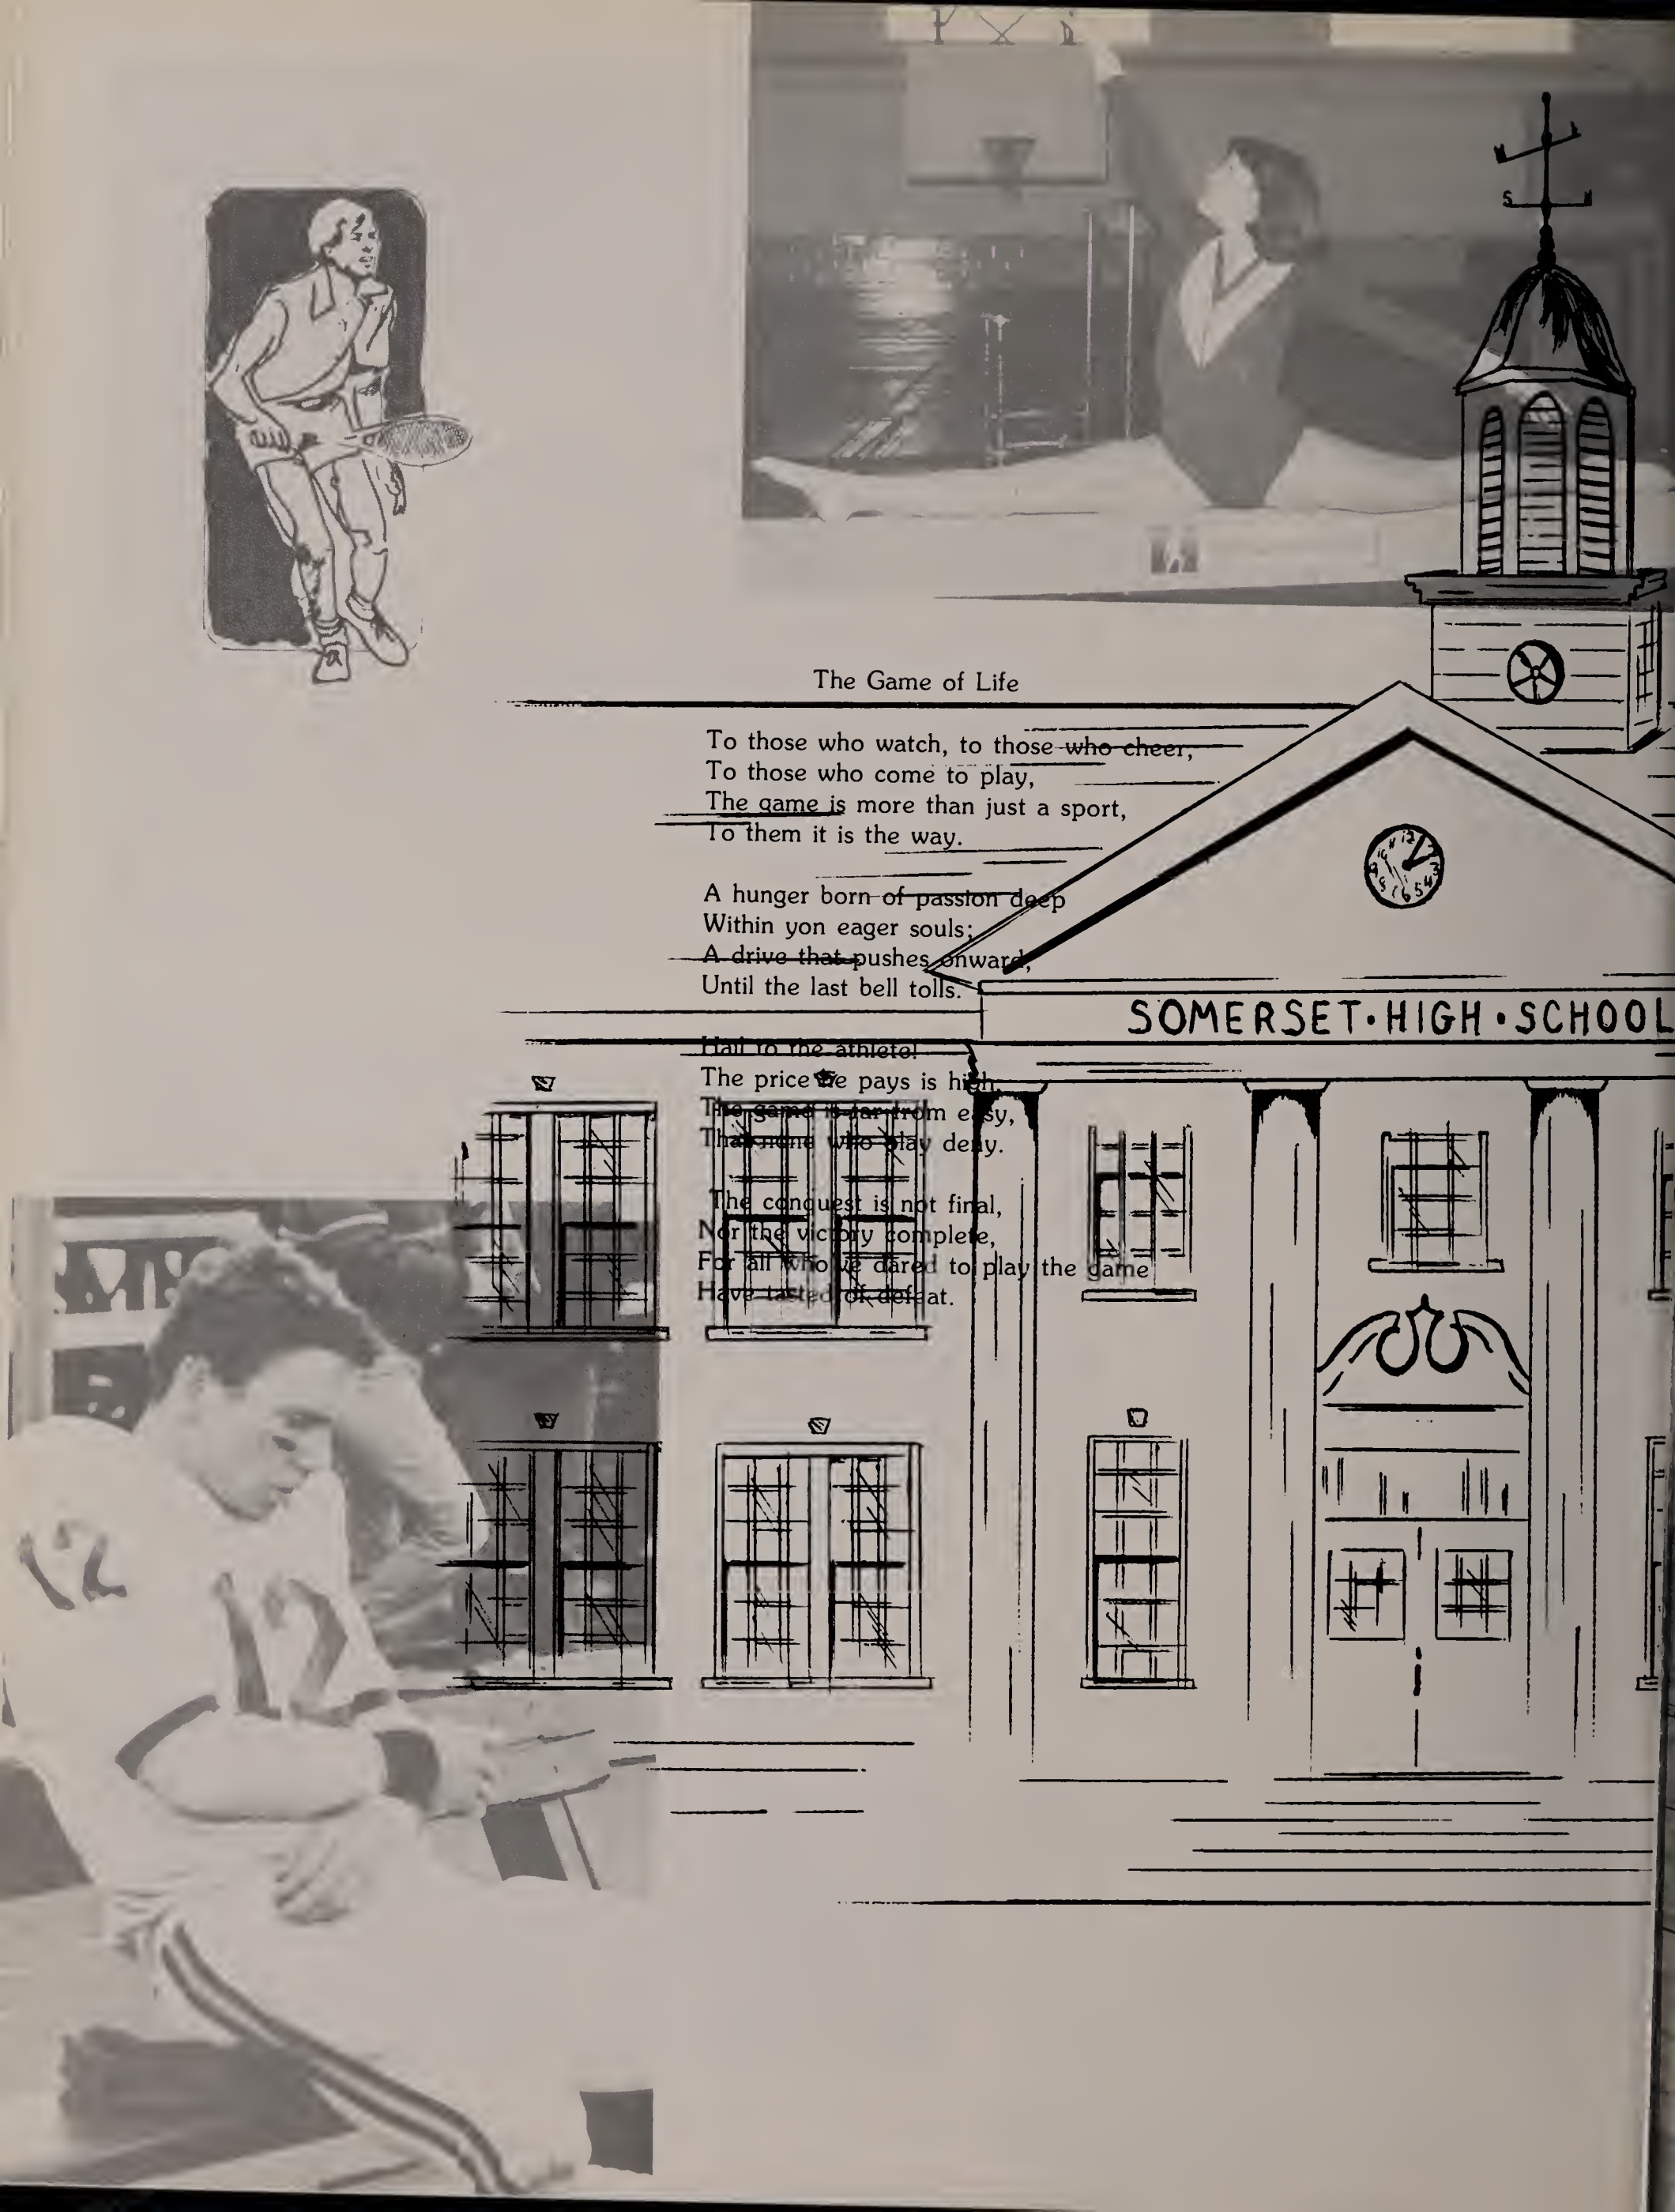
The Game of Life

To those who watch, to those who cheer,
To those who come to play,
The game is more than just a sport,
To them it is the way.

A hunger born of passion deep
Within yon eager souls;
A drive that pushes onward,
Until the last bell tolls.

Hail to the athlete!
The price he pays is high,
The game is far from easy,
Than none who play deny.

The conquest is not final,
Nor the victory complete,
For all who've dared to play the game
Have tasted of defeat.



The game of life is harder still,
Yet we all must play;
In the end we all my lose,
But for now, we've won the day . . .

Teammate, comrade, or lover,
Whoever you might be,
In the game of life we've found
That friendship means victory.

When we leave the fields of youth
For pastures green and true,
We'll look back to our memories
And think once more of you . .

To those who laughed, to those who cried,
To those who left, to those who died,
We'll say our last farewells,
For these were the times of our lives.

— Jonathan Stone

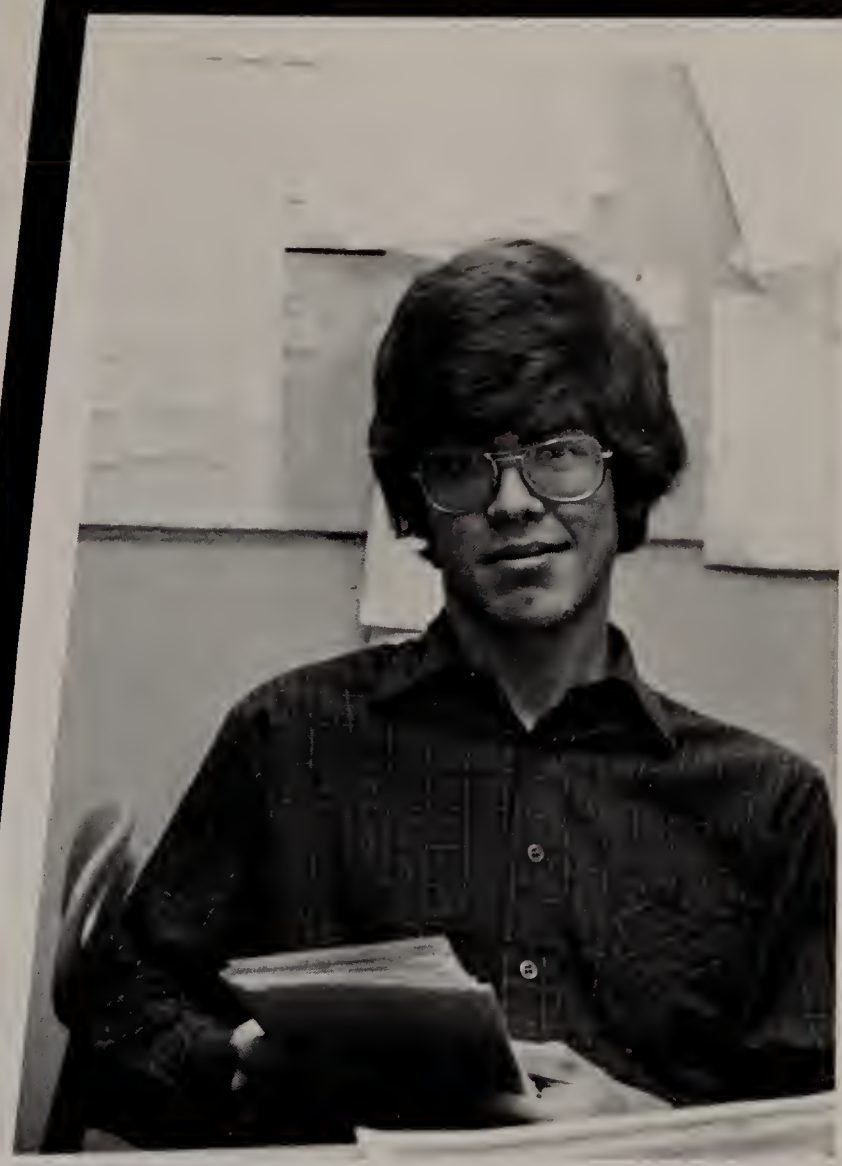
Richard LaMothe, Advisor

Michael McGrady Top Advertising Salesman

Our four years in high school have been very hectic but productive ones. As we leave SHS, we leave with a great sense of accomplishment. I'd like to wish everyone the best of luck after we graduate. I have really enjoyed working for the class. I am very proud to say I am a member of the Somerset High School Class of '81.

Martha

MARTHA GLADUE SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT



STEPHEN MICK - MANAGING EDITOR

A year is a year is a year (with apologies to Ms. Stein), but this one was a little special. Ronald Reagan became the fortieth president, 52 american hostages came home, and the world mourned the death of John Lennon. In our own little corner of the globe some big things happened too: the band went to Florida, the gymnastics team had its usual superb season, the football team went to the Super Bowl, while Proposition 2 ½ threatened to take most of it away; and of course, the class of '81 graduated.

In remembering all the great things we've done during our four years here, I can't help but remember all the people who have helped us along the way. That is why this book is dedicated to all the people at Somerset High; because without them, none of those great things would have been possible.

With that in mind, I'd like to take a moment to thank all the people who've helped to make this book a success: all the staff, from Martha and Mike to juniors Laurie Newton and Mary McDonald; special contributors like Joe, Norval, Doug Chapman, Ted Parada, Mrs. Talbot, Diane Lebel (our artist) and Colin Brearley (who donated the final photo); and to everyone who bought a book, after all, it's yours. My special thanks to Mr. LaMothe, without whom nothing would ever get done.

Best of luck to everyone,

Steve
